

Confidential

By Email

7 July 2017

Dear

Thank you for your recent correspondence. In response, as I understand it, the IEC has decided that each case relating to children of priests will be dealt with individually.

Any cases where there are allegations of child abuse will of course come under the remit of the child safeguarding procedures and will be addressed under the Church's safeguarding standards.

Yours sincerely,

Teresa Devlin
Chief Executive Officer