Dear Mr. Doyle,

Thank you kindly for your email of 17 February last, regarding the Irish State and its non-implementation of the 2016 directives from the UN Committee on the rights of the Child, specifically in reference to children fathered by Catholic priests.

I commend you for your ongoing efforts in this regard, which is clearly echoed and supported by Senator Rónán Mullen, as evidenced from his letter of 16 February past.

Wishing you every blessing for a holy and fruitful Season of Lent,

Yours in Christ,

Msgr.
