We would like to inform you that your letter to the CBCP dated May 11, 2015 was presented to 111th CBCP Plenary Assembly. All the members received of the same letter with the attachments.

Abp. Socrates Villegas, CBCP President, addressed the assembly and pointed out the seriousness of the matter being raised by Copeing International. The local ordinaries are exhorted to attend to this most serious concern. The bishops are also urged to make the necessary and appropriate interventions in their respective dioceses as regard to the plight of the children of priests and their parents.

May the Lord continue to bless your most noble efforts for the protection and care of children.

Fr. Marvin Mejia

Secretary General, CBCP
